

Welcome to The Master's House in Spring

This spring, there has been a dramatic murder in The Master's House. Come and join us for a night of entertainment with a new original murder mystery brought to you by Sara-Jane Arbury and LADS.

Discover new research into the life and times of Edward Cowper, a Master of St Katherine's Hospital in Tudor times, explore the history of the building on a heritage tour, and see photographic images from the restoration of The Master's House.

Learn more IT skills, try your hand at calligraphy, and kids can turn favourite stories into music this half-term at our free Lyrics in the Library workshops.

Have a look and put some dates in your diary!

The Master's House is a 15th century medieval building at the heart of Ledbury. Restored by Herefordshire Council and Heritage Lottery Fund, it is now home to Ledbury Library, Ledbury Poetry Festival, Age UK, and the Friends of the Master's House. This public building is open to everyone - come in and have a browse.

Event details are correct at time of print. Tickets are available six weeks before the event.
